

How to correct your Mistakes

To get the most from your listening of this CD follow these steps.

- 🕒 Open the Mus-haf (al-quráan Book) and find the Sura you want to memorise or correct
- 🕒 Choose the Sura you want to memorise or correct, by clicking its name.
- 🕒 Listen to both the Teacher and Students and do not recite with them.
- 🕒 Put your finger on the word being recited, and concentrate on it.
- 🕒 Compare what is written with what you hear, and what you know.
- 🕒 Remember Listen and don't recite with them at this stage.
- 🕒 Note down any mismatches in your exercise book.
- 🕒 At the end of the Sura, click again and listen the same sura as before. Make sure about what you have noted down.
- 🕒 Try to correct those mistakes on your own, from the Kitaab (Mus-haf)
- 🕒 Again click and listen the same Sura. This time recite with the students but don't recite with the teacher. Listen to him.
- 🕒 Correct any mistakes that you have found at this time.
- 🕒 You may listen to the teacher and recite with the students as many times as you need.

To memorise what you corrected follow these steps.

- 🕒 First read the file titled "How to memorise Quráan" on this CD's Tips section.
- 🕒 Then repeat again and again till you think you don't need to look at the Mus-haf to recite it.
- 🕒 Remember no limit for how many times to repeat before you memorise as we are all different.
- 🕒 Test your self by closing the Mus-haf and reciting the Sura by heart.
- 🕒 If successful then recite about 5 to 10 times more to make sure you settle it.
- 🕒 If not continue repeating. And then do the above steps when you feel.

NEVER

- 🕒 Never think that reciting with both the teacher and students will give you more assistance.
- 🕒 Never think that you don't need the Mus-haf
- 🕒 Never think that you can follow the recitation with your mind in somewhere else. CONCENTRATE!
- 🕒 Never think that you will gain something without working for it. Give time and pay efforts to memorise the Qurán.
- 🕒 Never neglect your prayers. Regularly praying pleases Allah and helps you fight Satan and memorise the Qurán.

Don't forget to make Du'aa for us after you memorise your lesson. We are in need for it, please.
